

FEST 2011 DAY OF WORKSHOPS

"Praying through Music: A Worship Leaders Role in the Church Today"

With Ike Ndolo

(2:15pm – 2:45 pm)

Leading worship for the Church is about more than great songs and music. Join worship leader Ike Ndolo as he leads a dynamic talk on the call of a worship leader. As a touring musician, Ike has the pleasure to lead thousands of people in worship every year. Hear his testimony and insights on how worship leaders can equip themselves through prayer, dedication, and service to truly play a part in setting "Hearts on Fire".

"Love, Prayer & Chaos: A Mom's Journey"

With Sarah Hart

(3:15pm – 3:45 pm)

Moms of all ages need to make time for themselves during their "family-filled" day at the FEST to hear this inspirational message of motherhood and faith by Grammy nominated, singer/songwriter Sarah Hart. This half hour session will help open you up to understand that you do not always have to "stay calm" in the chaos of life but rather find peace in the madness it takes to hold together a family. Sarah will share stories to make you smile, relate to who you are as an individual and end the time together in prayer so you leave feeling like you are not alone in all you face each day. You are a daughter of God and He works through you to instill a "Heart on Fire" in all those you nurture every moment of your life as wife and mother.

"Being a Man's Man: A Dad's Role in Today's World"

With Chris Padgett

(4:15pm – 4:45 pm)

Your role as a father is the one of the most important roles you play in this world along with being a faith filled husband. Chris is taking a break from his travels around the world giving talks, missions and concerts to present this "one of a kind" session specifically presented for Dad's. His unique style, will let you identify the qualities and events that can help you in your daily quest to be a better family leader. We as men must focus on Love, Sacrifice, Service and Meditation to ignite a "Heart on Fire" that allow our children want to follow by example. So, come spend 1/48 of your day with Chris Padgett a brilliant songwriter, musician, speaker and worship leader.
